

Night herons are night hunters. They sleep in trees during the day. Yellow-crowned night herons are recognized by their black face and white cap. Unlike other herons, the yellow-crown's favorite food is not fish. This heron likes crabs, especially fiddler crabs.